Forecast for Tuesday 03 Nov 2020

Weather: Dry with clear spells at first but increasing cloud brings more persistent rain east through the early hours, turning increasingly to snow above about 600m. The rain clears around dawn to leave a bright day with a mix of sunshine and showers, the showers falling as sleet or wet snow on the higher summits. The showers die out through the evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 600m: Around 25% at first west with periods of cloud above 600m and patches below becoming nearer 75% through the morning with cloud more occasional above 600m.

Visibility: Very good or excellent falling to several kilometres in rain and showers but a kilometre or less in wintriness on the higher summits.
